“ thank you for always lighting up our life with your humor and your smile, the time we spent together were the best memories of my childhood and it was the first time I felt like I had a real family, I'll never forget you helping us out when we needed it and for always being someone who treated us like family no matter what. “ Nisha is my ride or die. We have grown up together are moms are best friends. We are family she is my cousin. We have created so many memories together. From the toddler stage, to childhood stage and adulthood. We have also met some amazing friends to add to our crew. Who is also our family we all created a sisterhood. And the sisterhood is Andrea, Clara, Cassie, Kim, Nisha, Monica. We all have shared so many memories, laughs, cries, we have all dance the night away together. Watched our kids grow up, are kids have hung out and became friends. Some of the sisters got called back to be with God, but I truly believe once God calls us all back. We can continue with our sisterhood Lords willing. Nisha I Love you , fly high with the angels. I'm so sad that you are gone, but I'm glad you aren't in no more pain. I know you will watch out for all of us, be our guardian angel. Love you cousin. Rest in Paradise

“ Nene was one of my favorite girls, we became friends through Clara bear another one of my favorite girls. I knew y'all would be forever in my life, friends that turn into Family. We all just clicked and road so tough for each other. Andrea,Clara, Nisha, Erica, Kim,me,Monique, Suzanne,Monica . This was a beautiful new chapter in my life. I was so excited to have friends that looked like me lol and I could finally relate with and really be myself and confident. Being mixed growing up in salt lake “it wasn’t easy “ but because of you ladies I was able to let my hair down “ literally “ and to be as beautiful as I wanted to be. That’s the type of impact your beautiful soul had on me, those days are some of my best days and a lot of them was with Nisha “Nene” is what I called her. Nisha helped me through a very tough time in my life,when my mom passed away, Nene came to the house, we let the kids play, Nisha,not knowing pulled out my mom body and soul CDs and started playing them, which helped me through my healing process. I thank you Nisha for being there for me and I thank you for being strong when I couldn’t and thank you for being my friend and thank you for being my sister and thank you for keeping it real when I needed to hear it and I Thank you for sharing some of your last hours here on earth with me. You’ll forever be in my heart. Send me a sign from time to time, my beautiful friend/sister. I miss your encouraging words and your smile. I love you friend
