

Brenda K Loya

January 4, 1964 - September 19, 2023

Our loving Wife, Mother, and Grandmother Brenda K. Angeli Loya passed away surrounded by the love of her life and their 3 children, on September 19th, 2023. Brenda graced us with her passion, love, and mischief for 54 years. Brenda was born on January 04th, 1969, to James and Linda Angeli in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Brenda met the love of her life and best friend Kirk Loya in 1985 and they married on August 08th, 1986, and quickly started a family they loved and adored.

Brenda and Kirk opened their doors over the years to so many of their family and friends and were always up for a good cookout. Brenda loved craft nights and everyday talks with her daughters, she was always so proud of her children and would brag about them to anyone and everyone, she loved cuddling with her fur babies and so much more but Brenda's greatest joy was hands down her grandchildren Neveah, Lilyaunna, Aria, Christopher and Sophie.

Brenda is survived by her husband Kirk Loya, Children: Curtis & Courtney Loya, April Loya & Cory Gledhill, Cheree Loya & Kari Avery, and her grandchildren.

Brenda is preceded in Death by her parents James & Linda Angeli and her beloved 4 legged fur babies.

A Memorial Service and Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, September 30th, 2023 at Jordan Meadows LDS Ward 1510 W Parliament Ave in West Valley City, Utah from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM.

“ Sweet dear Brenda you were one of the first fiends I made when I married into the family. You were always so kind and had so much passion for life. We were so young at the time and you always made me feel welcomed. I have many memories of us hanging out going to the dinner and the movies and with us living so close by to each other we would simply hang out and laugh and enjoy life. You will be missed by many. To Kirk and your family I send my deepest condolences and prayers may you rest in peace and watch over your loved ones.
