

Brooke Lynn Zeeman

March 16, 1982 - July 4, 2021

Brooke Lynn Zeeman , affectionately known as Brooke, was born on March 16, 1982 to Sandra West and Terry Zeeman in Millcreek Utah

On March 16th 1982 an Angel was born by the name of Brooke Lynn Zeeman. Brooke was born and raised in Utah where she received her educational background. After graduating she pursued various job endeavors throughout. She was a very beautiful girl with a happy go lucky type personality. Brooke was a spiritual woman who loved life as well as Angels.

Brooke was a devoted daughter, mother, sister and friend who loved her family with all her heart. She carried an infectious smile wherever she went. She gave the best hugs and had beautiful eyes that could tell a story and light up any room. Brooke loved to cook and was known to her family and friends as the "Mama of soul food. Some of her talents included gardening, decorating and shopping for paintings and little knick knacks. Brooke had a strong love for her music. She really loved her country westerns and oldies. Her most precious pride and joy was her love for her children and fiancé. Brooke was their personal cheerleader that would support them and could be heard cheering them on from any sidelines or stands. It didn't matter if it was a dance or sports she was there. In her spare time Brooke loved traveling in the mountains, camping, watching the sun set and so much more. Although she faced some health issues she rose above her illnesses and always put her needs last to nurture her family and loved ones. Despite her days and nights of pain her tears remained unshed. By example Brooke taught her kids and others how to be thankful for whatever life brings. She created a family of love and taught them to laugh and care for each other. It was no secret that her and her fiancé, Terrence were soulmates. She changed his life and they were inseparable from the moment they met.

The family would like to remember her for her huge heart and capacity to accept and love everyone because it was truly remarkable Brooke loved statues of angels and although we are saying goodbye to her physical body ,we know God is lucky because he gained the most beautiful angel of all.

She is survived by her loving children Ielsey, Daja, ,Farah and Ryan. Her fiancé, Terrence Fritz ; Parents Sandra West and Terry Zeeman ; Sister Jennifer Garlick (Richard), Uncle Randy and Dillion Raymond (cousin) and numerous family and friends.

“ Brooke is missed and will continue to be missed for a very long, long time. Through good and bad times she was a genuine good friend of mine. She guided me and made life changing decisions for me when I couldn't do those things for myself. She helped me with things that still help me at this moment and will continue to help me through my journey in life. She was my true friend. I'll definitely miss her smile. Many years ago I asked her why smiled so much. She said, "My mom paid all that money for them braces and I hated wearing them all those years, but they enhanced the beauty of all my beauty!". They surely did. May she Rest in Eternal Peacefulness! Brooke Lynn was like a mom, sister, and bestfriend to me for many years. She was definitely my family and I miss her dearly. I have much love, respect, and prayers for Sandy, Terry, her kids, and Terrence. Whatever is needed of me and in my power consider it done. Respectfully, Brooke Lynn's Bestie! Terence
