

Calvin Jak Brown

February 7, 1993 - December 12, 2020

Jak came into this world a surprise, and throughout his 27 years, the surprise has never ceased. He was a man who had such an amazing inner light, it lifted those around him and cast his demons away into the shadows. He ran so fast for so long, the demons couldn't catch him. Until December 12th, 2020, when Jak's light dimmed and those demons caught him unexpectedly. Jak loved life and he lived it to the fullest. He was made of only love, life, and light. He was not capable of being mean, disrespectful, nor acting in any way out of malice. Jak always had a smile on his face, and his heart turned towards his family, friends, and the next adventure around the corner. He loved Bear Lake, animals, chess (except when he lost), his family, especially his sister (except when she beat him), the Steelers, and chasing waves that chased him back, but his favorite thing about all the places was always the same thing - it was always his family. The family is blessed to have the kind and loving light he left behind in his son Bhodi whom he adored above all things. Jak was loved immensely because the love he gave was infinite.

Jak's love lives on his parents, Steve Brown and Marceline Anglin Brown, his sister, Maya Helena Brown, and his son Bhodi. Also in his extended family which includes his many aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents and friends. Jak is preceded in death by his Grandfather Tex Anglin, and his Uncle Mark Pagano

“ Jak was a ray of sunshine mixed with a mischievous smile. He could make everyone laugh and bring a sense of joy and fun into the most dull experience. I remember him volunteering to help whenever he could. He struggled to keep it for himself. I’m grateful for the chance to have experienced the light he brought into my life and I’m beyond sad for his family for a soul gone too soon. He adored his mother and had a special bond with her. He was adamant about making her proud and constantly battled with shame about letting addiction getting the better of him. They will always share a unique bond and I’m lucky I got to see that. He will be missed!! Much love and healing to his mom and his sweet family.

Thank You Danette. I really admired you and wanted to make you proud too. He was so grateful for the chance you gave him. He loved being at DTR and loved everyone there. I am so glad you got to see his beautiful light. You saw it immediately and took action to try and save it. You will forever be in my loving thoughts when it comes to my beautiful son.
