

Carlos Daniel Perez

September 19, 1930 - July 24, 2022

Carlos D. Perez left this life to return home to his Lord July 24, 2022 after a sudden illness from a rapid form of lung cancer. Born September 19, 1930 to immigrant parents from Jalisco, Mexico, Carlos was the only child of Emanuel Vasquez Perez and Guadalupe DeLeon Perez. After his mother's death in 1945, he lived his teen years raised by his aunt and uncle, Mary and Guadalupe (Lupe) Mora. Born and raised in Utah, he later met and married his soul mate Phillis Annett Lowry in 1960. He is survived by his daughters, Sylvia (Raymon) Wentz, Julia (Robert) Harding, Margaret (Bill) Murphy, son-in-law Kevin Bowler, 30 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren and several cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, his son, Carlos Vincent and his daughter, Laurie Marilu Bowler. Services were kept to immediate family due to Covid and a celebration of life will be announced in the near future. Our family wishes to thank CNS Hospice for their kindness and aid in his care.

“ My favorite memories of Danny were when he played the piano and sang. Thinking of you during this difficult time.

Thank you Wendy Jill. Dad loved you and your family. He got really depressed when your mom passed, as did we all, but he was very protective over mom and possible Covid situations. I hope you know that in his heart you were always one of his own, and you'll always be one of us. We love you.
