

Carol Abel Meyers

April 10, 1937 - May 4, 2020

Carol Abel Meyers, age 83, passed away in Draper, Utah on May 4, 2020. She was born on April 10, 1937 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Jean Abel Markowitz and David Markowitz. She married James Duke Denos.

I have lost today the most loving, kind, gracious wife that anyone could ever hope for. My wife, Carol, liked and loved everyone in her life. She was kind beyond words. She never had a bad word for anyone she met. I was the lucky recipient of her love and goodness. She loved to make friends with all the people she met in her life. She loved to teach bridge, as did her mother Jean. She also taught line dancing, and all that knew Carol loved her. Before she was ill she taught at the Heritage Senior Center in Murray, Utah. She loved helping other people by giving of her time freely. To me she was precious beyond words. It is impossible to explain how I will miss this beautiful light in my life. My memory of her beautiful soul will never fade from my thoughts.

She is survived by her husband James Denos, her brother Skip Markowitz, sister-in-law Bobbi Markowitz, her daughter and son-in-law Deborah and Chris Cantiello, her grandchildren Michelle and Anthony Cantiello, her stepdaughter Becky Lozano, and stepsons Shannon, Jason and Randy Denos, all of whom adored and loved Carol.

She was preceded in death by her mother Jean and father David Markowitz, daughter Judith Markowitz and stepson Guy Denos.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic there will be no service. If you would like to celebrate Carol's life, please do something special for your loved ones.

Arrangements are under the direction of Wiscombe Memorial.

“ Sweet Grandma Carole,

Thank you for always being a true ray of sunshine! Your heart was as pure as your golden personality. Thank you for overflowing kindness, love, and smiles that you have given us all these years. You always knew how to make us feel right at home. I will miss your warm greetings, fun conversations, and tight hugs! We have been so blessed to have you as part of our family.

If anyone on this Earth has earned their angel wings - it's you, Carole!

May you rest soundly and in peace.

Sending my love and many kisses.

“ Carol,

You will be missed dearly. Thank you for being my grandpa's best friend and wife.

I can hear your east coast accent now, telling us not to worry - that you're doing fine. You are so strong and I know you fought hard these past couple years. Your strength will be remembered. I can say for all of us, that your stories will be missed. You are so knowledgeable and always had a story to share. You are so kind and selfless and never wanted anyone to worry about you. I will remember you by all these wonderful qualities.

I feel comfort in knowing that you will be greeted by your daughter and your stepson, my dad.

Sending you much love - Rest in Peace, Carol.

“ Jim, this has always been one of my favorite pictures of you and Mom. I want to thank you for the care you took of Mom, these past 40 years but MOST especially these past three years as she declined. I will never forget how you refused to give up on Mom and how your support kept her engaged in thoughtful and meaningful activities up until the last week of her life.

I remember with a smile last year, as you were trying to teach Mom how old she was. I remember you asking her how many fingers, 8, thumbs, 2, so 82. I remember you asking her how old she was and her saying, "i don't know but it has something to do with my fingers".

I remember my last conversation with Mom (where she actively participated) and that was just two weeks ago today! We were talking about her room, her bed, her comfortable chair, that she was able to get to etc, I mentioned Jim and she said "My Jim?". All the way until the end Mom was able to hold on to the love you two shared, something very special.

Thanks Jim for taking such great care of Mom. XXOO Deb

“ I was saddened to hear that Carol had passed away this last Monday. I had known her for about 35+ years. I never knew a sweeter, kinder or more gentle person than her. I think she merely lived to make people feel comfortable and welcome wherever she was. I don't think Carol ever met a stranger and if she did within minutes she had charmed this person into a loving submission as she did with everyone. Even though that individual didn't know it then, they were going to be her next great friend. Everyone she came in contact with she always had her perpetual smile ready to greet them with. Carol, you were such a loving and kind individual and you will surely be missed. Love to you my dear friend. May you RIP...

Thanks for letting me/us know about Carol's passing. While I did not know her very long nor very well, she and I had many an interesting conversation. She was always talkative about any subject under the sun, and was fun to chat with. I enjoyed visiting her in the home she went to after it became difficult for her to work any longer. She truly was a ray of sunshine. RIP, Carol.

Sabra, Mom just loved working for you. I remember how proud she was when you had contacted her to see if she might do a little part time work for you. I also remember a day she called me as she had messed up some stuff at work, she was so upset and then she told me that you came in the office and said it was fine and just took care of it like it did not matter at all ! I know you were a true blessing in Mom'[s life. In early 2018 when we stayed at the house, Mom was so happy that she had to work on that particular Friday that she was up at 3:00 am to pick out her clothes and make her lunch etc. She must have changed her outfit five times that morning. God Bless you Sabra.
