

Charles Willard St.Clair

March 6, 1939 - July 9, 2019

Charles Willard St.Clair, age 80, passed away in his apartment on or about July 9, 2019. He was born on March 6, 1939, in Calais, Maine, to Mabel Perry and Clyde St.Clair, Sr.

Charlie was raised in Berlin, New Hampshire, and after graduating high school in 1957, moved to Boston, Massachusetts, where he met and married his first wife, and also joined the United States Army Reserve, and served honorably until his discharge in 1964.

Charlie was a proud member of the International Association of Machinists, and served as President of his Local until his retirement on full disability.

Charlie was also an avid fisherman, and before his would spend most weekends at Center Creek in Heber, Utah with his sons. He also loved to travel and sight-see, and would drive cross country with at least one of his sons to visit his parents in Maine. He really enjoyed spending time with his family, and loved crossword puzzles and taking long walks.

He is survived by his four sons, Chris St.Clair, Sr. and wife Denise, Robert St.Clair and wife Delia, Gary St.Clair, Brian St.Clair and husband Joel; five grandchildren, Chris Jr. and partner Miranda, Kimberly, Maria, Andrew, and Ian; and two great grandchildren, Jocelyn and Rhyllie.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Clyde and Mabel St.Clair, and his older brother, Clyde Jr.

By his own request, there will be no public ceremony, memorial or funeral.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles Willard St.Clair

October 22, 2023 at 08:21 PM

“ Charles Willard St.Clair

October 05, 2023 at 07:13 AM

“ I miss my Father-in-Law. He was funny. I enjoyed taking him to the stores. he loved chocolate coffee cake. When we go spread his ashes I,m going to make him a cake. I love you Dad. I hope to see you again in Heaven someday.

Denise StClair - August 23, 2019 at 11:34 PM