“ You left me entirely too soon hun. We had so many plans to still fulfill. I will make sure I get to the ocean as that is one place you always talked about taking me. Although you could be difficult and stubborn at times, you were also kind, courageous, honest, strong, intelligent, respectful, generous, loyal, loving and always made me laugh. I will surely remember the good times and many laughs we have shared over the years. You were such a great cook. It was amazing how you could go in without a plan and just simply create something delicious. I can't name a specific favorite dish of yours because you made so many. You were always thanking me for giving you such wonderful daughters, now I'm thanking you. I will make sure your grandchildren never forget who you are. You will live in our memories and hearts forever. I'm glad you are no longer in pain. Be free Clint. I will always love you.

“ Clint was one of the most honest, hard working individual I ever had the honor of meeting. He took so much pride in everything he did, both at work and with his family. Being on the same team and striving for the same goals was a daily pleasure. Gonna miss the big guy, but he will always be with us.
