Connie was a an amazing, loving, sweet, & patient person to be with. She was there for her children through any and every life challenges & hardships that came along. We always played games at family get togethers. She was a card shark and loved games.

Mom was a very loving Mother and Grandmother doing anything she could to make them feel special as an individual and making them happy. The grand kids loved having sleepovers at her house. She loved celebrating birthdays, Christmas, holidays, & all occasions. Halloween was her favorite time of year. We will always remember her being involved with what was going on in our families lives. She didn't want to miss a thing. Vacations were a big thing for the family. We were always going places and doing things to make memories. Connie was employed for 10 years with Crown Burger.

Her favorite thing to do was writing poems, and she loved to read. Her hair had to be done by a professional beautician, so as to get the perfect hair do.
