

Dawn Elizabeth Neveu

May 20, 1964 - May 5, 2020

Dawn Elizabeth Neveu, age 55, passed away in Salt Lake City, Utah on May 5, 2020. She was born in Fall River, MA on May 20, 1964 to Lillian and Raymond Neveu. May 5th marks the day we all lost our beautiful Mother, Grammy, Great-Grammy, Sister, Daughter, and Dear Friend. She was not only beautiful on the outside but beautiful from within. Looking back this woman has been selfless her whole life. She has provided hot meals or food, taken people into her home who at the time lacked shelter, lent a helping hand when needed, and loved with her whole being even when it caused her pain, this was my mom. She did the very best she could to let those she loved know that she loved them. Her heart was her biggest strength but also her biggest weakness, for she passed from heart failure. Her smile was bright, her laugh contagious. She enjoyed good company, long phone conversations, watching crime TV shows, cooking, and baking (she made the best banana bread and apple pie ever). She wasn't dealt the best hand in life and she didn't have much (so she used to say, I think she had all of what mattered), but I pray she knows just how much she was loved and just how very special she truly was. She has suffered a great deal during and towards the end of her life, but she has climbed the highest mountains, took the longest way around the ocean, and at times stood the tallest at 5ft 3in. Her strength and her heart are those to be admired. I couldn't be more proud to call her my mom. Fly high Angel! Your fight is over. Forever loved and missed.

She is survived by her (Daughter) Laura McAdams, (Son In-law) Arley

McAdams (Grandchildren) HunnieLyn McAdams, Arley McAdams, Honor McAdams, Cassandra Plourde, Tanazia Plourde, Aiyana Plourde, (Son) David Strain, (Daughter in-law) Melissa Miller, (Grandchildren) Emily Harvey, Brad Miller, Cameron Miller, Kendall Miller, Jacob Miller, (Son) Keith Pulido, (Daughter) Vanessa Pulido, (Grandchildren) Macayla D'Andrea, Bella D'Andrea, Nicolas Pacheno, (Sister) Lara Shepard, (Step-Mom) Sandra Shepard, (Best friends) Chris Jonaitis, David Quesada

“ I am very sad to learn of Dawn's passing, and my condolences go out to Dawn's children and family. I have very happy memories of Dawn from my early adolescent years, when we were together at St. Vincent's in Fall River. She was my roommate, and the most wonderful friend. I remember how we walked every morning from Somerset High School to Somerset Middle School in the summer of 1980, and all the other good times we had! She was always very positive and supportive of me, and always had a kind word to say. She was a loving person with a heart of gold, and will be remembered fondly. Rest in Peace, Dawn, and thank you for being a friend.

This candle is to warm the hearts of the grieving family. Dawn was always a little pistol but she had a good heart underneath it all. Be strong and be happy she would want you to be. Love Great Aunt Linda.

“ Dawn is the best sister that people wished they had! You will always be loved as you always have been. No one can or will ever compare to you for you are a one of a kind. I will miss the good and the bad times we shared for that is what made us such close sisters. You will for all eternity live within my heart. Love you sis. To my beautiful niece and nephew Laura and David, may you find calm in all of this someday. Know that I am here for you always. Love you both Aunt Lara.
