

Debbie Sue Switzer

October 11, 1959 - September 14, 2022

Debbie passed away of natural causes in Avalon Valley Rehabilitation Center in Salt Lake City, Utah on September 14, 2022. Debbie will be reunited with her mother Beverly Anderson and her brother Joseph Anderson. Both were loved dearly by Debbie.

She was born October 11, 1959 in Northbend, Washington State. She was the youngest of three children, she was raised by her mother and was very close to her grandparents Leona and Joseph Dechand. She was married to Steven Switzer for 33 years and had four beautiful children.

Debbie cherished time with her family, she enjoyed playing with her grandchildren. She had fun spending time in the garden with her son Joseph, picking tomatoes. Debbie loved sitting on her porch with a cup of coffee while people watching. She enjoyed the small things and laughter was the best medicine. But most of all she loved having her family together, she will be missed greatly.

Remember to Breathe

Debbie is survived by her sister Dorothy Thayer, and her four children: Crissy (Cameron) Winward, Rebecca (Chris) Geesey, Stevey (Jeramie) Williams and Joseph Switzer; 8 grandchildren.

There will be no services per her request.

“ Hi momma, I know that I don't share often but losing you has been one of the hardest things I've had to overcome. It will be 3 years soon and I still don't know how to live this life without you. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. I've gotten better at keeping my emotions to myself. 3 months out of the year (August, September & October) seems to be the hardest. I sit there and i replay all of our last conversations and memories over and over again. My mood changes, I'm super cranky and nobody knows why but I do.. I don't have you! I really hope you know how much I loved you, still love you and will always love you. I miss you so much it hurts.

“ Well mom, our babygirl did it!!! She graduated high school. She wore your necklace so that you would be right there with her on that special day.

Today is the 3rd anniversary of Grandma's passing. I've been sad a lot and missing you both so much!! I'm still trying to figure out how to live this life without you.. it's hard! I love you forever momma!

“ I’m a couple days late but only because this Mother’s Day was super hard knowing I couldn’t even call you. Cass did a great job at keeping my mind busy. I miss you a lot, I don’t think this sadness is ever gonna go away. A lot has been going on and I just wish you were here by my side. I need you! Anyways I just wanted to say Happy Momma’s Day up in heaven. I hold you close to my heart everyday and will never forget the memories we share. I love you forever!!!

“ I can’t believe it’s been a week since you left us here on earth to be with grandma. It feels like a lifetime. I’m sitting here still at a loss and can’t get you off my mind. I know you are now free of pain and you can breathe again but I miss you so much! I’ll hold onto our memories that we shared together forever. I love you momma!

I just wanted to tell you that I check on here all the time to see if you have wrote anything. I miss you, and her a lot and I find comfort in reading your words. I always try to write something but end up erasing it. I'll be surprised if I send this one.
