

Deborah Katherine Rossborough Moth Iversen

January 11, 1954 - June 16, 2024

Deborah Katherine Rossborough Moth Iversen spent her last months at Sandstone South Lake (skilled nursing facility) due to kidney failure. Ron, Kelley, Bert, Heather, and Sharron could be found at her bedside most of the time. She passed away on June 16, 2024, at the age of 70. She spent her last day surrounded by her loved ones. As she passed from this life to the next, her hand rested in her niece Shanon's loving hands.

Deborah was born January 11, 1954, in Portland, Maine, to Everett Scott Rossborough and, Bertha Florence (Bowden) Rossborough. She is survived by her husband Ronald L. Moth Iversen; siblings: Bertha "Bert" Rossborough Rucker, Scott Rossborough, and Kelley Rossborough Cole. She was preceded in death by her son Robert "Robby" Rossborough, and sister Dianna Rossborough Lee. She will be missed by her niece, nephews, and a large extended family, especially by her two best friends Amy Moth Iversen (sister-in-law) and Lori, church friends,

Deborah loved meeting people. Deborah was an endowed Member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She was interested in what makes people feel good and happy. In her spare time, Deborah enjoyed baby-sitting, playing video games, and making jewelry. There will be a small private gathering of close friends and family to celebrate the life "Debbie" lived, and to share love and memories.
