

Dorothy Marie Baty

February 15, 1933 - July 3, 2022

Dorothy Marie Baty (aged 89) of Salt Lake City, Utah died peacefully on July 3rd, 2022, after a long illness. She was born in Cameron, Texas on February 15th, 1933, to Thomas Watson Batey and Annie Floyd Day. She graduated from Yoe High School of Cameron and later received her B.S. from the University of Texas at Austin in Elementary Education. She married Roy Samuel Baty, Jr. on July 30th, 1955, at the University Methodist Church in Austin, and celebrated 66 years of marriage with him. In her early adult life, Dorothy was an elementary school teacher before becoming a dedicated mother and later a grandmother.

Dorothy was passionate about many activities which included gardening, sewing, traveling, and participating in the Officer's Wives' Club. Often, she would spend hours nurturing her tomato plants and roses or working on sewing clothes and blankets that are still being used by her family today. She was famous for putting together incredible meals for holidays and entertaining, with leftovers being a rare occurrence. She prided herself on maintaining an impeccable household and flower garden. Most importantly, she was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and aunt to every member of her family.

Dorothy is survived by her loving husband, Roy Samuel Baty, Jr.; her devoted sons Roy Stuart Baty (Joanne) of Los Alamos, New Mexico, Reid Samuel Baty (Richard) of Salt Lake City, Utah; and her grandchildren Samuel Roy

Baty and Sarah Marie Baty both of Los Alamos, New Mexico. She is also survived by her nephew Thomas Young (Lindsey) and family of League City, Texas, and her niece Anne Giddings (John) and family of Round Rock, Texas. Dorothy was preceded in death by her infant daughter Kathy Lynne, her parents Thomas and Annie Batey, her brother Thomas Batey, and her sister Kathryn Young. Dorothy will be greatly missed by all who knew her and will be forever loved by her family.

Interment at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. The pallbearers are Roy Baty, Reid Baty, Samuel Baty, and Richard McAllister. The honorary pallbearers are Sarah Baty, Thomas Young, and Anne Young Giddings.
