“ Sending prayers and my condolences to Carol, Michelle and all the family. It saddens me to hear my friend Eric has passed . I have so many great memories of us walking the neighborhood meeting up with friends at the park playing tag and watch the guys play football. I will forever cherish are neighborhood families. It was a great place to grow up . Fly with the angels Eric you are free to go anywhere you want to go now. God bless you and your family you are all in my prayers. Laura (Archuleta) Callahan

I remember snow balls fight and playing football on the street. We played baseball together. I remember walking up to circle K getting chips and soda pops when we was young. Crashing in the motor bike on the dirt and you picked the bike off me. My leg was jacked up. Fly with the angels old friend.
