

Jason Scott Fahl

December 16, 1972 - January 13, 2022

On the 13th of January, 2022, our beloved Jason lost his battle with Covid-19 and took his last breath. He passed at Jordan Valley Hospital at age 49 with his loving wife Molly by his side.

Jason was born on December 16, 1972, to David Henry and Lafaye Fahl. He attended Kearns High and Salt Lake Community College. He spent 25 years working in logistics as a warehouse manager for truck driving. Most recently he worked at Seattle Fish Company.

Jason loved life and his family very much. He always was bringing laughter to any situation and lit up any room he entered. He was an avid gamer and knew almost every line to many movies. He absolutely loved working with automobiles. Jason was kind and caring, often taking produce to friends, neighbors, and some homeless communities. Jason loved his grandchildren and often spent the weekend playing with them.

He is survived by his loving wife of 21 years Molly M. Fahl (53), his beloved daughter Kayla Faye Fahl (18), stepsons Broque Dillion Mackenzie (37) and Bradley Keller Mackenzie (33), three grandchildren, parents David (78) and Faye (77) Fahl of Draper, brothers David Douglas Fahl (54) of Seattle, Micheal Travis Fahl (51) of Salt Lake City, and many other friends and family. He is preceded in death by his paternal and maternal grandparents.

The Fahl family will hold a memorial service on Thursday, January 20, 2022, with a viewing from 10:30-11:15 and a funeral service from 11:30-12:15 to be held at the Kearns 8th Ward, 6200 South 3750 West. Due to the ongoing pandemic, N95/KN95 masks will be provided and are to be worn in the church. Please social distance whenever possible to keep yourself and others safe. If you are sick please don't attend.

“ Jason was so kind to me. I will be forever grateful to have met Jason and to call him my cousin. His emails he would graciously send on articles he read about to help me with my own health challenges was so kind and selfless. I will be forever appreciative of everything Jason read and sent my way. Thank you Jason for your kindness and your humor as well. You will be sorely missed. Sending love to those grieving his loss.
