

José Guadalupe Zárate González

March 31, 1952 - February 27, 2021

José was born on March 31, 1952 in Tecoman Colima, Mexico. He was the son of the late José Zárate González and Isabella González Noranjo.

Jose married his life long partner, María Obdulia Morales Hernández in December 11, 1974 at a Catholic Church in Michoacan, Mexico. He later moved to the United States in 1987 with his wife, four kids and granddaughter (Maricela, Fabian, Lupe, Lupita and Guadalupe and Gladisela Zarate) for a better life. Finally settling down in Utah in 2001 and buying his forever home in 2004.

In 2004, José started working for Scott Bone Drywall up until his passing. He was an ambitious and earnest worker. He was also a genuine, loving and devoted husband, father and grandfather. José enjoyed making new friendships and was ecstatic to share his life stories with them. He also enjoyed and loved every sort of food, sweets, dessert and snacks he could lay his hands on... except for chicken and 2% milk. Saying he loved his coconut water, peanuts, lays chip and ¡Sponch! cookies is an understatement. Those were his favorite snacks to munch on. One of his rituals was to wake up early on Saturday mornings, drink a cup of fresh brewed coffee and eat a concha while he watched TV. Before I forget, his truck was also something he genuinely loved. He would wash her as soon as he saw a smudge.

José truly left his mark on those he met and will be truly missed by family and friends

A viewing will be held on Friday, March 5, 2021 at Wiscombe Memorial.
