I will miss you so much Justin! This is very hard to process, you always seemed to be in a fun good mood even when your team lost against my Seahawks :) you always found something to joke about it. Your plans on wanting me to join you too be a Jedi and take down the bad people. We could always count on you to make us smile and laugh. I don't think I've ever seen you mad or down. Always lifted my spirit up even at my sister's and dad's funeral, you had the brightest eyes that just went on forever when you looked into them. The stories you used to tell sometimes I had no idea what you were talking about but the way you told them were interesting enough to keep my interest. I love you Primo! Always and forever! Give lots of crap to my dad and sister's and I will see you when it's time. R.I.P honey. Adrian Vigil

I have lots of great memories with Justin as kids. I also of alot of great ones as adults playing on our family softball team the Vigilante hit squad....that was the best thing I did is to get us all together to play ball. Justin's favorite place to hit was a line drive over second base....he had that swing down like no other. You are one of the good one's Justin and are already truly missed.
