

Lawrence Larry Mascarenas

February 21, 1973 - September 13, 2018

In loving memory of Larry L Mascarenas 2-21-73 to 9-13-18.

“If you ever see”

A butterfly’s wings kissed by the sun light,
May it find your shoulder so you will know it is I.

As I close my eyes. I’m thankful of our Almighty God, that he has you resting in his hands. For God has taken and called you home. To a glorious place where all your suffering and pain are gone. There is comfort in knowing that your spirit and soul finally has peace and serenity. All those beers you have felt having vanished and faded away. There are no longer obstacles to stand in your way, all those walls have come tumbling down. Forever now you shall be at peace so as I weep, do many wonderful memories dance through my mind. There are so many things I wished I had old. From the moment I saw and met you you stole my heart away and over the years I was blessed to have you in my life. Maybe you never realized and knew just how much you have an gave me. It’s what I needed the most. What joy and love you brought! A sense of pride I still feel inside that all the new you will have many memories to share. It’s an all of these memories that will help consult us all that for me you gave me a lifetime of love and so many special ways. And by my faith, I know you’re in a glorious Paradise flying on an angels wings. For you are forever always in our hearts and minds.

“ Me and Dominic miss you so much!!! The other day Dom broke down in tears because I bought him chocolate milk he said mom I miss my dad he would always buy me chocolate milk. We were best friends even though we argued like we were married we always had each others back regardless. I promised you I will do everything you asked of me and please take care of our other angel in heaven. Love you so much!!!!

“ Sweetheart, I still can't believe your gone, and choose not to think that way, as your spirit will always remain. You were the other half of my heart, which is now broken. We had everything and did everything together. As long as we had each other, we were happy, I will always love you with all my heart. I am glad your not suffering anymore, and are in heaven with ypur mama and baby,flying amongst the angels, looking down on us. You are and will always be on my mind and in my heart. ❤️ Always and forever your lady, Brandy Shepherd.
