“ You could always make me laugh and mad within minutes, lol. I think back and how bad I feel for not talking to you over something so stupid. If I had the chance to take it back I would. You were my best friend and I didn't get just how much you did for me just by listening and not sugar coating shit. Everyone needs a friend like you. You were always humble and always trying to help anyone you could. I wish you were still here but you are with your dad and brother watching over your son, daughter in law, beautiful grandson . I will see you again sometime soon.

*Love always,
Anne*
