

Marlin Floyd Allred

February 24, 1967 - November 8, 2020

Marlin F Allred, 53, Passed Away, November 8, 2020 with his Sister by his side. Marlin was a kind and gentle man that was good to everyone he met. He has always dearly missed, and had a special place in his heart for his Daughter, Savanna. He loved to make everyone laugh, and enjoyed it most himself. He spent most of his time with his Brother, David. He loved car shows, Rock and Roll, playing drums to drive Grandma crazy, but playing his guitar was his passion. He was closest to his Mother and always wanted the best for her.

He left this world to join his Mother and Father in the afterlife. His Siblings, Nephews, Niece, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and Friends will have many fond memories of him.

A Poem To You Brother: "And I've got to understand You must release the ones you love And let go of their hand, I try and cope the best I can But I'm missing you so much If I could only see you And once more feel your touch. Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me don't worry, I'll be fine But now and then I swear I feel Your hand slip into Mine. Love You Brother, Until We Meet Again.

Preceded Extra: Father, Marlin D Allred. Mother, Rose Marie (Clements) Allred.

“ It's been two years now you've been gone, it seems like yesterday but at the same time it feels like 1000 years ago. I told you you'd never be forgotten and you haven't been. I miss you, and mom and being part of your family even if it was just for a minute. Until it's my time to go I'll remember you everyday... Luv you always. Meesha

I told Cindy you tossed me a penny, and the happiness it gave me. Do something special for her from you. Fill her heart with your never ending love.

“ I haven't setup a Xmas tree for years. Last year Marlin was spending December with me & asked if we were having a tree. I brought the decorations up & told him “yes, it's all yours”. You could tell he loved every minute of it. I think I'll have a tree this year in Marlin's memory ❄️👤

Marlin was always gentle & loving. I know he will continue to give us love from above. We just have to watch for the signs and the moments. They will come.
