“ Michael Todd and I worked together for a few years and in that time I grew so fond of him. He was always such a great friend, had such a great sense of humor, and always had funny off-the-wall comments to say about everything. He was one of the greatest guys I ever knew and he will be missed so much. When we work together his favorite line to use was "flip a cookie"... I'd never heard that until him and I said often thanks to him. I just wish I could have had more time with you Mike. I am so very sad that we lost such a great person way too soon. Rip buddy love ya.
