

Norman Craig Poll

May 24, 1951 - February 12, 2023

Norman “Craig” Poll was born as the oldest of five on May 24, 1951 in Salt Lake City, Utah to Norman Wayne Poll and Audrey Diane Wilkes Poll. His professional career included law and work with United Airlines. He lived in Salt Lake City, Denver, Chicago and two years in France as a young man. Craig was a radiant light that helped guide us all thru the journey of life, and we are left bereft in the wake of his loss. Craig had an energy and zest for life that was unyielding. Art was his first love, and he applied the concept of art to both his life and his relationships. Craig’s energy and appetite for life was unmatched and inspired all who knew him to be more, do more, and know more. His religion was “Truth” and he was in constant pursuit of that sacred knowledge. His passion for life allowed him to experience four eras during this earthly tenure and he left an invaluable legacy of love, devotion, and kindness to his family and friends.

He is survived by his mother, Diane, his brothers Shane Poll and Quinn Poll, his sister Charmaine, his daughter and son-in-law, Leslie and Chris Stroud and his five grandchildren, Lucy, Grant, Lincoln, Harrison and Grace, and many beloved nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his father Norman and his brother Bruce Poll.

There will be a Celebration of Life Service on Friday, February 17, 2023, “ Norm hired me as a law clerk when I was in law school. What a fantastic opportunity. I worked with him on several matters, but one case in particular comes to mind. It involved immigrant homeowners in a condo association who were treated extremely poorly by their association. I was impressed with his skills as an attorney and his tenaciousness in ultimately succeeding in this case amidst strong opposition from a well-funded and insurance-appointed law firm, as I recall. Norm had such compassion for his clients. Amidst intense competition for a limited number of attorney jobs, his clerkship helped me obtain a job offer from a great law firm. I am forever thankful for Norm's generosity and mentorship in my first job in the legal profession, which has spanned almost 30 years so far. I also recall how much Norm adored his daughter, Leslie. Whenever she came up in a conversation, he couldn't help but smile.

Norm, my thoughts and prayers are with you, Leslie, and the rest of your family. Thank you. John Carver

“ I first met Norman "Craig" in 1984 when he became in-house counsel for The Allen Group where I worked as a receptionist. Then, in 1986 he formed a law firm called Krieger and Poll PC where I was hired as his secretary. The firm changed names long after that and he went on to a solo practice where I worked for him occasionally on a contract basis that spanned more than 15 years. What stands out to me is that we had a solid working relationship and a profound friendship throughout the time he lived in Denver. We stayed in touch for a time when he moved to Chicago and as time passed, we corresponded a few times sharing what we were doing in our lives and kept up on family. I miss those letters. He sent me photos of him and his grandchildren... he was so proud. I remember the dinners we shared, taking each other to the airport when one of us was traveling, concerts, the parties, the clients we grew to adore, and everything in between. He was a kind, thoughtful, and generous man who I am going to miss greatly. Norm, Craig, NCP... until we meet again, rest in peace my friend. Roberta Allen

It's very true, Leslie, I know that about him. My heart breaks for your loss of him, and for your family, especially for you and his mother, Diane! Bless all of you, and trust Jesus! I believe while Craig is missing you, he is also rejoicing with many of your family members, including Norman, and Bruce, and it's wonderful for them! Sending love & prayers to Heaven, for you and all of Craig's family.
