“ I've only known Maxine for a couple of years but my life was enriched by her trust in God and her patience with infirmities. She always met me with a smile and hug - and said good bye with a prayer and a kiss. Maxine loved her family and friends so much; she shared wonderful stories and looked forward to an eternal life with her Creator and those loved ones who had gone ahead of her to the afterlife. My prayers will continue to be with you, Maxine!

“ I have known Maxine for over 40 years. Her sweet son Carlo was one of my best friends. She was such an amazing, beautiful lady. When I asked her to be my son's godmother, she was so super excited and honored to be a part of his life in such a special and meaningful way. They were sealed together in the catholic church in 1989. She never went a day without sending me a text letting me know she was okay and to tell me she loved me as I did her. I will miss our lunch/dinner dates. She will truly be missed, but blessed she is with her family now, that she missed more than anything. The memories will stay in my heart forever! I love you Maxine until we meet again.

“ Maxine was the sweetest godmother a guy could ask for. Even when I was a small child she would frequently check in to make sure I was doing ok. She had the most amazing hugs full of love that always felt would last forever! Maxine always was the most fashionable for every occasion and she always had that perfect piece of jewelry to complete her look. She will be truly missed. ”
