

Sara Ruth Fowler

July 9, 1981 - July 10, 2022

Sara Ruth Fowler was born to Bill and Michele Clark in Houston, Texas. She is the third of four children, with siblings Heather, Stacy and Zack. She moved with her family to Utah at a young age, where she grew up in Provo. She met and married her husband, Jaren in 2001 and began a wonderful relationship together. Sara and Jaren's adventures together took them to exotic places like China and California. They eventually settled in Eagle Mountain, Utah.

Sara is the proud and loving mother to three children, Rory, Samuel, and Eli. The children have been her world and joy to watch grow. Sara opened her house and heart to countless neighborhood kids that came by for a snack, a popsicle, or just to talk. She made everyone feel welcome and comfortable when she was near. Sara was well known for her love of dogs, especially her fur babies, Douglas Peanut (Doug) and Carl Beaver Fredrickson (Fred).

Sara loved watching the Philadelphia Phillies play baseball and was always quick to talk trash on Jaren's San Francisco Giants. She lived for Marvel movies and loved listening to music. Sara could often be heard giggling, as she watched videos of people behaving poorly on the internet.

Sara will always be known for her vivacious smile, sassy and sarcastic personality, and her kind and loving spirit. Sara was the rock of her family's foundation. She displayed unmatched courage and strength throughout her life. She will be forever loved, forever cherished, and will be an endlessly burning flame of happiness in the hearts of ALL who had the honor of knowing her.

“ Sara could always make me laugh. Her smile was contagious. She was always the first person to let Jaren and me know that we were “idiots “. She never shied away from telling us what she thought about our antics. Sara, I will do my best in your honor to keep Jaren out of idiot status. You will be missed greatly.

“ You were always a ray of SUNSHINE on cloudy days! I now know why your favorite color was yellow, because you were truly radiant! You will be so missed. I love you sweet Sara!

“ We love Sara! My kids are all torn up over this loss. My oldest has been friends with Sam since they were in first grade. My youngest, Sara and I always teased him about having a crush on her and him being her boyfriend! When her dog Daisy passed, she met one of our puppies and instantly fell in love. He became her new baby, Fred. I'm so heart broken over this news. Sara always welcomed ALL the kids over, and when I had a rough day we would sit and talk for HOURS! All the Harry Potter stuff too! She brought me chocolate wand one year after going to visit Harry Potter World in CA. I would find things Harry Potter and have to buy two of everything so she could have one as well. I love you Sara! We love you and we love you fowlers!

“ We love Jaron and Sara. Our son Cooper considered their home a second home for years with Sam. She was always so amazing and great to Coop and all of the other kids. She will be missed. Love to Jaron and the kids. ❤️👍

“ One night I my dad had gotten mad at my siblings and I for some reason. It made me mad so I my brother and I ran over to Sara's house. We spent a few hours there she told us that our dad was coming. She told us to pretend we were asleep on her couch and he would get rid of him. He and Sara talked for a few minutes and he kept trying to get us. He finally left and we stayed the night at Sara's. She even fed us dinner and Breakfast the next morning. I am so grateful for Sara and Jaren they were both secondary parents to me and my siblings. They were always there to keep us safe from my father.

“ My boys always found Sara and Jaren's place a safe haven and place of peace. Our boys grew up together and became fast friends. Sara and Jaren were there numerous times when needed for our family. We did holidays together especially the 4th or 24th of July. We have some amazing memories together and will continue to be friends forever!!
