Star you are so loved and missed by just as many. You have such a big heart it could no longer be contained here on earth. When they were passing out the hardships in Heaven you took on the lions share so others would not have to bear that burden. You endured more than most should have too. You are a true warrior. Forever and Always my love-me

Survived by his wife Jennifer and son Scott. Sister Eve (Yvonne) Bird (Randy Bird), Ammon Medina, Emerson, Eleanor, and Brooke Glahn.

Preceded in death by both parents, Starford Churchill II and Adelia Shacklette.

“ Star my friend, funny thing that I knew you before I knew Jen, and won't forget the day you connected those dots of being a missionary in Southern CA, and always coming over to my house when I was only about 10-11 years old to see my older sister (lol). My dad always reminded me over the years of how he had to tell Elder Churchill and Elder Funk to stop flirting with his daughter (lol). Then years later you met and married a wonderful person I met while I was a missionary in Northern CA, what a small world we live in. You will be missed, and thank you for all the wonderful memories from when I was a small kid to the last 15 years.
