

Tyler Edwin Hall

September 1, 1983 - February 9, 2025

Tyler Hall, born September 1, 1983, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, February 9, 2025. Tyler was the life of the party—the ringleader of every gathering, the man who could light up any room with his infectious energy and larger-than-life charm. A ladies' man, loyal friend, devoted son, and brother, Tyler would do anything for those he loved, always just a phone call away when someone needed him.

From a young age, Tyler's charisma, amazing character, and talent were apparent. As a child, he ventured into acting and appeared in a few TV commercials—ironically including some anti-smoking ads. Later, Tyler turned his attention to building the family business, Valley Pump and Compressor, alongside his sister, Ashley, brother, Zach, and father, Paul.

Tyler was a passionate lover of the outdoors and cherished time spent at Defa's Ranch and Moab, Utah. He also enjoyed traveling and was fortunate to have seen many parts of the United States and Europe, often alongside his father, and his siblings. These trips were among the fondest memories he held dear, and his zest for adventure was ever-present in his life.

Tyler is survived by his father, Paul E. Hall, and numerous extended family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his sister, Ashley Hall; his brother, Zach Hall; and his mother, Michelle Amos.

A Celebration of Life will be held in Tyler's honor on Saturday, February 15, 2025, from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM at 331 South 600 East, Salt Lake City, UT. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations to help cover funeral expenses.

Online condolences may be shared at www.wiscombememorial.com/

Tyler's memory will live on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know him.

“A ladies’ man!” I love it. Listen, anyone willing to put their life’s story on TV for the world to see is OK in my book. It’s just random luck I happened to watch Tyler’s episode tonight only to find this “update.” Let’s give Tyler some credit for being in this mortal coil with everything he’s been handed. Credit to his parents for showing up. Rest in peace, Tyler! 🤘

“ Tyler you have a special place in my heart. Watching you grow up in our family. Every holiday we would be together. You and Anthony was always busy planning something in the tree house. Or watching He man videos. I.S.A.L.Y. ❤️ Aunt Cama RIP
